What's My Job?

In answer to a query from one of the stores as to the duties of a store floor supervisor, Paul C. Dikeman, director of personnel, prepared the following explanation:

Duties of a floor supervisor are just as the title implies—seeing that customers are served, counters maintained, sources of pilferage observed. These duties include such activities as answering bells, okaying packages, correcting register errors, making out purchase slips. Plus, the floor supervisor must be the spearhead of the company's Friendly Recognition program—sincerely greeting customers with "good morning," "good afternoon," or "good evening." When working in this capacity, the floor supervisor should be identified with a supervisor's badge listed in KW.
